Shut Down Guantanamo North

On April 24th, a new detention facility was inaugurated by the Canadian Border Services Agency at the Millhaven Penitentiary in Ontario. It has been dubbed 'Guantanamo North', as it currently holds three men who are being detained indefinitely without charge or trial on secret evidence that neither they nor their lawyers can access. The men have each spent from four to six years behind bars without charge, and have been on hunger strike for over a month. Demand their release of Minister of Citizenship and Immigration Stockwell Day.

Foundation of United States Pirate Party

Following the example set by the Swedish Pirate Party, people in the United States have formed a political party of their own. The party strives to reform copyright, patent, trademark, and privacy law, which is increasingly being used by large corporations at the expense of ordinary people: from corporate biopiracy to unavailability of affordable health care pharmaceuticals to prosecution of music and movie downloaders. The Swedish party gained media attention after May 31st, when Swedish police raided the facility hosting the Pirate Bay, the world's largest BitTorrent tracker. BitTorrent is an internet file-sharing protocol which currently accounts for 30% of all internet traffic.
