Announcing Queeruption 10 in Vancouver, August 2-7 2007

Queeruption is a free DIY radical queer gathering that takes place in a different city every year. This year's gathering will be the first in Canada. It has previously taken place in cities in Europe, the United States, Australia, and the Middle East. Queeruption is organized by the participants themselves along anarchistic participatory lines, by and for queers who reject the consumerism and assimilationism that affects so much of mainstream gay and lesbian culture. For more details about the gathering, keep your eyes on www.queeruption.org

First Books for the Junto Book Club

If you were following last month, you know that the Junto library has started a reading and discussion group open to all. The first book, for Tuesday, January 30th, 2007, will be Jack London's dystopic novel "The Iron Heel". You can read this book on-line for free at <http://london.sonoma.edu/Writings/IronHeel/>
The second book, for Tuesday, February 27th will be Thomas King's Green Grass, Running Water, which is widely available in the public library. The third book will be decided by all of us at the January meeting. See you then!

Anarchists in Tel Aviv Block City Center With Razor Wire From Separation Wall

infoshop.org - A group of 20 anarchists used razor wire taken from the Apartheid wall to block off Basel Street, one of Tel Aviv's hippest coffee shop centers last Friday. The two rolls of razor wire were stretched across the street parallel to each other, in a formation reminding that of the wall, and red signs reading: "Mortal Danger-Military Zone. Any person who passes or damages the fence endangers his life", also from the wall itself, were hanged on it. Flyers explaining Israel's policy of restrictions on movement land-grab were passed around. The action was carried to remind Tel Aviv's café goers of everyday hardships of Palestinians, resulting from Israel's apartheid policies and conduct in the Occupied Territories, and from the occupation itself. The activists urged Israelis to take responsibility of what is being done in their names, and force an end to Israeli occupation.
