2 Anarchists on Hunger Strike in Greek Prison

indymedia.org - 20 people were arrested after the riots that erupted during the European Social Forum march in Athens, in 6th May 2006. 17 of them have been charged and await trial for multiple felony charges. 3 of them have been detained since May 2006, two of which have been on hunger strike for more than one month, protesting their ongoing 8-month imprisonment without charge. Solidarity actions have taken place all over Greece. Demos have been held, radio stations taken over, police stations attacked, banks bombed, and, during the new year's eve Athens city centre celebration, a huge banner demanding their release was attached to helium balloons and set off in the air amongst hundreds of unsuspecting cops to the embarrassment of gathered politicians and TV crews who were broadcasting the event live. Also, in Salonica, baby Jesus was stolen from the city's Christmas crib. In its place, a CD was left with propaganda material demanding the release of the prisoners.
