::: News :::

Spirited Anarchy festival Winnipeg MB is may 8-11 2008! Come one, come all, and check out a series of events that will reach, teach and connect you to anarchism. This festival in being organized to celebrate our local radical community in Winnipeg and foster a wider understanding of the principals of anarchy through art, film, literature, music and discussion. The festival will start on Thursday may 8th, with 2 panel discussions (one on the history of anarchism, and the other on paris '68) and a film in the evening (Rene Viénet's "can dialectics break bricks?"). Then friday may 9th features a full day of an art gallery tour "Destructive urge/creative urge" & discussion with artists, a derek jensen talk, anarcho-olympic games, anti-olympics 2010 talk and and film, then a rock for rights show. Saturday may 10th will be a full day of anarchist book fair in old market square, with poetry, theatrics and workshops all day long, with a huge a-zone fundraiser building party throughout the night. Sunday may 11th wraps up the festival with mothers day brunch, soccer, bike jousting, workshops, and an obstacle race.

Check out the website for full festival details:
